DEPARTMENTAL REPORT NO.

On October 21, 2017, at approximately 2111 hours, a five vehicle fatal collision occurred on eastbound Interstate 10 (I-10) at milepost 164.2. I, Arizona Department of Public Safety (DPS) Vehicular Crimes Unit (VCU) Detective [REDACTED], was contacted by DPS VCU Sergeant [REDACTED] via cellular telephone of the incident. I was request to respond to DPS Knutson Station [REDACTED] in Phoenix to lead the criminal investigation.

Upon my arrival, I learned the following information from DPS Highway Patrol [REDACTED]

Lauren Tamburrelli of Chandler Arizona was identified by witnesses and admitted to driving a vehicle involved in the collision. Tamburrelli was described by several witnesses as to have an odor of alcoholic beverages coming from her person. Witnesses also described, Tamburrelli was attempting to walk away from the incident scene. Trooper [REDACTED] contacted Tamburrelli while she was holding her daughter, later identified as [REDACTED]. Trooper [REDACTED] noted Tamburrelli was staggering with witnesses attempting to hold her up. Trooper Casey stated Tamburrelli was yelling at the witnesses with hostility to leave her alone.

Trooper [REDACTED] asked Tamburrelli what happened to which she responded she was driving and now here she was. Trooper [REDACTED] said he could smell a strong odor of alcoholic beverages coming from Tamburrelli's breath. Trooper [REDACTED] also noted Tamburrelli's speech was slurred, her eyes were bloodshot red, and watery. Trooper [REDACTED] asked Tamburrelli for more details but instead of responding to him, she started walking away without answering. After asking again, Tamburrelli said she wanted a lawyer.

At approximately 2122 hours, Trooper [REDACTED] placed Tamburrelli under arrest and she began having mood swing and became combative. Tamburrelli asked repetitive question of Trooper [REDACTED], repeating the same questions several times. Trooper [REDACTED] said once Tamburrelli was placed in his back seat, the odor of alcoholic beverages became stronger, her slurred speech continued, she mispronounced common words several times, and almost vomited while she spoke to herself with incoherent sentences.

After speaking with Trooper [REDACTED], I contacted Sergeant Haywood and received the following information from troopers and detectives on scene:

Vehicle one, a Hyundai 4 door sedan driven by Tamburrelli, rear ended vehicle two, a Toyota 4Runner. The collision caused vehicle two to begin a counter clockwise spin towards the depressed dirt median. Vehicle two tripped and rolled through a cable barrier, then landed in the opposite lanes of travel (westbound) for I-10. During the rollover sequence, the passenger of vehicle two, later identified as [REDACTED] DOB [REDACTED], was ejected and pronounced deceased after being transported to Chandler Regional hospital for further medical care. The driver of vehicle two, later identified as [REDACTED] DOB [REDACTED] was trapped within the passenger compartment and pronounced deceased on scene. Vehicle one was also occupied by her three year old daughter, [REDACTED], who was in the right rear passenger seat, within a car seat.

Vehicle three was side swiped by vehicle one and was occupied by driver, [REDACTED] DOB [REDACTED], and passenger, [REDACTED] DOB [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] was transported to Chandler Regional Hospital for further medical attention. Vehicle four and vehicle five were traveling on the westbound lanes of the I-10 when they were struck by debris resulting from the collision sequence.

I attempted to speak to Tamburrelli and advised her of her Miranda Rights from a department issued Miranda Warnings card. She refused and requested to contact a lawyer. I exited the interview room giving Tamburrelli privacy from 2324 hours to 2354 hours and placed a phone book in her possession.

Throughout the contact with Tamburrelli, she displayed several mood swings and emotions. Tamburrelli hysterically began to cry on multiple occasions, was observed by DPS HPD Trooper [REDACTED] attempting to pick the lock on her handcuffs with a hair pin, asked to use the restroom on more than six occasions with a two hour period, and said she needed to throw up but when asked it was not due to any medical reasons. Tamburrelli also insisted on asking questions about the incident and was unable to recall anything occurring.

At approximately 0229 hours, Tamburrelli asked if there "really was a real search warrant for my blood" and asked "where is . . . was she damaged?"
